

1. Sales at the Farmers' Market are limited to garden produce, locally handmade crafts, flowers, herbs, houseplants, and baked goods.
2. All items must be grown or made by the seller to support economic wellbeing and the development of home-based businesses. Store fronts or resale items are not allowed.
3. You must obtain a retail food sales license through the Gallatin Valley Environmental Health Department if you are selling any potentially hazardous food products. You can contact the Environmental Health Department at (406) 582-3120. You can also reach out to our manager at (406) 388-6701 and they can assist you further.
4. Sellers MUST provide their own tables, change, bags and advertising signs. Sellers determine their own prices.
5. Sellers are required to be ready to sell when the market opens at 9:00 a.m. and sell until noon when the market ends.
6. Sellers MUST clean their own area at the conclusion of each market. Be considerate and pick up trash whenever you see it. You will be charged a $25.00 clean up fee if your space has trash remaining.
7. Unreserved vendors for the market arrive at the fairgrounds parking lot through the Grand Gate at 7:45 am. Enter the gate, then drive to the exhibit buildings until you see a market table with market staff members. You will be given a number and at 8:00 the numbers will be drawn to determine who receives a space. You pay the market worker when chosen, then walk to the pavilion where you will be shown to a space.
8. The selling or giving away of animals is strictly prohibited.
9. No sales of alcohol or tobacco.
10. No advocacy or medicinal products (no care providers, massage therapists, acupuncturists, chiropractors or products taken orally or on the skin promising to relieve a medical condition.)
11. No petitions
12. No political or religious solicitation
13. NO smoking or dogs allowed under the pavilion.
14. All vendors and attendees must adhere to current Covid-19 rules and regulations imposed by the Gallatin Valley Health Department.
15. We are all in this together to create a welcoming environment. Please treat everyone with kindness and respect. Hate or bullying of any kind will not be tolerated.
